Celebrate the Season - Saturdays With Santa

Gather and Give tradition continues, benefitting the SF-Marin Food Bank and Toys for Tots; Pronzini Christmas Tree Lot celebrates 50 years at Bon Air

Who: Riding a shiny, red fire engine (courtesy of the Larkspur Fire Department), Santa Claus arrives at noon at Santa's Workshop adjacent to Mollie Stone's Market in Bon Air on the first three Saturdays of December to celebrate the season. Children of all ages and pets of all sizes are invited to whisper their wishes to the Man of the Season, pose for a free portrait with Santa (courtesy CVS and Bon Air), enjoy music, sidewalk specials, Santa's elves, children's activities and people and puppy treats.

What: In the spirit of the season, Bon Air invites visitors to Gather and Give, continuing its long-standing tradition of hosting a Holiday Food Drive with the SF-Marin Food Bank. Collection barrels for canned food are located throughout Bon Air. Tax-deductible "grab and give" grocery bags are available for purchase from Molly Stone's, ranging from $18 - $30 per bag and discounted by 10%. Bon Air will also be supporting the Larkspur Fire Department's annual Toys for Tots Drive, accepting new, unwrapped toys for kids of all ages.

Pronzini's Christmas Tree lot celebrates its 50th year at Bon Air. Stop by to purchase fragrant Christmas trees, wreaths and garland. Find them under the big oak in the west parking lot.

When: Saturday, December 2, 9 and 16, noon - 4 p.m.
